 This coin forms a mule between the Calais issue of 1369-1377 and that of 1360-1369: the obverse shows the new type of 1369-1377, with the addition of the French title, and has narrower style of lettering; the reverse is struck from a die of the earlier issue, with the broader and shorter lettering. It is therefore of the highest importance and interest in identifying the arrangement of these issues.
